Sunset on Cairnmore of Carsphairn – Walk 3-2

:: Fact Sheets

www.newtonstewartwalkfest.com

Each of our walkers will be able to download a Fact Sheet including a map of their walk routes. These are being compiled as this newsletter is being published. You will find links to the Fact Sheets on our download page when they are available. We will send an email to all our walkers in the very near future.

9th - 15th May 2008

:: Entertainment

Have you booked your evening entertainment?

:: Friday 9th May – Galloway Arms Hotel
Our annual Walkers Ceilidh is a great opportunity to socialise with your fellow walkers and get to know some of the walk leaders. It's a really great traditional Scottish Night of music and dance – with some good food included. £8.00

:: Saturday 10th May – Galloway Arms Hotel
'The Wildlife and Landscapes of Galloway'
A presentation by our local wildlife photographer Keith Kirk. A fascinating insight into the natural beauty of Galloway. Free of Charge

:: Sunday 11th May – Cinema

:: Monday 12th May – Galloway Arms Hotel
'Galloway Mountain Rescue in Action'
They have guided you safely in the hills during the festival – now find out about the reasons why they exist.
Donations to the Team funds welcomed

Millfore and Darnaw (2-5)
Distance: 10km Ascent: 800m

This is not a long walk but quite demanding due to absence of well defined paths. It takes in two distinctive tops providing aspects of Newton Stewart from Millfore and the Rhinns of Kells from Darnaw. Site of an aircraft accident will be visited.

Our Walk Co-ordinator suggests this is a good alternative to the walks which are fully booked.
